In Second Scrap, Seven Innings Long, Hartzell's Bat Does the Trick.

The New York Americans eased their way out of seventh place yesterday by breaking even with the Detroit Tigers. They did this while the Browns were los ing one and tying another in Boston. The leaders had little trouble disposing of the tallenders, and the White Sox won an extra inning game in Washington. Three of the battles went overtime. Sam Crawford bludgeoned the New Yorks to a drubbing in the first game of a double header at the Polo Grounds yesterday and that after the home brigade had built up a long lead. When the New Yorks got through scoring Crawford started in and the Detroits laughed last.

was cut down to seven innings, and the New Yorks won it, 3 to 2. This conflict, like its bigger brother battle, had a last inning climax in which a tle was broken and victory set up then and there. Hart-zell hit in the winning tally for the New Yorks, cleaving the dusk with a parabola over first. He must have had can't eves He must have had cat's eyes to see the ball. Umpire Hildebrand kept the teams at it longer than there was any reasonable need for doing. As it was, the after seven innings, and in the seventh only those with the best of eyesight could keep up with the doings in the trans-lucence. The only way the others knew there was a ball game was by hearing

Hugh Jennings's voice.
The first game was loose and contained plays and tactics of all sorts. Dauss, after being handled roughly by the New Yorks, rallied in style and went through the extra innings strong. Even after their big lead had been torn away the New Yorks had nice chances to win, but re-peatedly failed to bring in men on bases. As a matter of fact, both sides had this disappointing experience frequently before Crawford wedged a home run lift. be- Pennock Pitches Effectively and

A rush of base hits give the New Yorks of the first inning. Hartzell, ree, Mullen, Peck and Sweeney did the pitched effectively throughout while two four runs in the first inning. Hartzell, Cree, Mullen, Peck and Sweeney did the stabbing and Doc Cook inserted a sacrifice which was fumbled by Dauss. With four runs in there still were three men on bases and none out. The rally ended lamely in a couple of strikeouts and a tap to the pitcher, and the failure to keep striking while the iron was hot brought its nearly later on.

brought its penalty later on.

More hitting and slack fielding by the Tigers fattened the New York sotal to of these back in the sixth, when they knocked Brown out of the box. Cobb singled, as did Veach, Burns and Moriarty, which entillading of the Brown delivery was topped off by a double by Dauss. There was a double steal in this

Jennings kept his attack moving at a ate while his men were in the After Cobb had forced Vitt in the seventh inning Crawford tripled. A triple is all Cobb needs to bring him in from first, and Veach immediately pounded a fly to Cook which brought Crawford home. Following came a lull until the thirteenth, but with men on in the intermediate rounds. Crawford fizzled out on a puny fly in the eleventh and stranded two assoclates, but Sam was a creature of ex-tremes, as witness the thirteenth. Bush walked, Vitt sacrificed, Cobb was passed purposely for the second time. Two as-persions on his batting prowess in one game were more than Sam could bear, although at that passing Cobb was good s, for it gave chances for a double But Crawford dropped a home run into an upper box in the thirteenth. Bush and Cobb waited for him at third and the three did a dog trot to the plate in In-

The New Yorks had a run lead cut pitched only the last three innings for ways to nothing in the second game, but down to nothing in the second game, but had a come back in reserve. Birdie Cree made one run on a walk, a sacrifice and a jab to port by Boone. Birdie made another on a hit, a sacrifice, a balk and a bisecting single to centre by Nunamaker. Vitt forced Bush in the sixth, whereat the Cobb-Crawford alliance girded up its loins. Cobb doubled and Vitt scored. Two were out in the seventh when Maisel hopped a single to right. He stole second. On their way back yesterday from their final Western trip the Glants stopped off for a day in Pittsburg and played an eleven inning tie with the Pirates. They held their lead of half a game over the Bostons and will have a double header with the Pirates in New York as a result of yesterday's draw. On the trip, the first half of which was a series of reverses, they lost seven games, tied one and won five. They played much better ball the latter part of the journey than in the first part. The Cubs threw a defeat into the Reds and dropped them down to sixth

To-day's Schedule.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 31.-The Giants fought out to a finish with the Pirates to-day in an effort to go East with at least one game advantage over the Boston Braves. They seemed likely to do so until the ninth inning, when Demaree lost his grip slightly. Before he could recover his effectiveness the Buccaneers had squeezed a man over the pan and tied up the game, 1 to 1, where it remained at the end of the eleventh inning. As it was 5 o'clock by that time, and the teams had agreed The New Yorks led, 6 to 0, at one stage, but at the finish the Tigers led, 9 to 6. The latter tied the score in the seventh and made a hurrah finish with three tallies in the thirteenth, which was the overtime length to which the first feud went.

On account of darkness the second clash was cut down to seven innings, and the first feud was cut down to seven innings, and the first feud was cut down to seven innings, and the first feud was cut down to seven innings, and the first feud was cut down to seven innings, and the first feud for James in the eighth inning.

Demaree was better to-day than at any other time on the present trip, for al-though he was nit freely he was unreachable when men were on the bases, and the fact that the Pirates had twelve left on base shows what the Glant twirler was doing for his team at critical times. He was helped a little by poor base running of Collins and Carey for the home team, and runs were cut off at the plate be-cause the champions took advantage of the mistakes of the Buccaneers. The Pirates became dangerous in the third inning, when Collins and Kelly singled, but the next two men could do nothing with the shotput delivery of the artist pitcher. It was in the fifth inning, however, where the Pirates shound what however, where the Pirates showed what poor base runners they are, when they hit safely three times, yet failed to score. With one man out Carey singled to right, went to second on Collins's safety to left, and when Viox got an infield single back of short Carey tried to score, but was caught at the plate, Fletcher to Merkle to Meyers. The fine work of Demaree was noticeable in the sixth, when the Firates filled the bases on two singles and a walk, but Carey popped up and the Giants breathed easy.

"When the accounts of 1914 are cast up you will find that this has been one of the most successful years organized baseball has ever enjoyed, certainly so in respect to both major leagues. SYRACUSE, Aug. 31 .- Directum 1., bred came into his own again when he won the big Grand Circuit free for all to-day and smashed all pacing race records. Until to-day only William ever had paced in two minutes in a race, but Directum equalled that mark in the second hear, and came right back in two minutes in the third, breaking Star Pointer's record that had stood seventeen years. The time a contest of divided heats by five secon was no nearer racing perfection than Frank Bogash, Jr., and they were equal favorites. In the first heat they loafed favorites. In the first to the half in 1:03%. it was a terrific fight to the wire and Bogash won by a neck, pacing the last half in 58% and the last quarter in 27% Directum away flying and he led to the finish. When Murphy gave it up at the

This time Frank Bogash kept in closer company Frank Bogash kept in closer company and was only a length back as they turned into the stretch. The masterful Murphy made one of the greatest drives of his life. He drew up to the New York stallion at the distance, but hung there, and was a half length back as Directum flashed under the wire going straight and true. The fractional time was 20%, 50% and 1:20%.
